

Stanton Chase Named Top U.S. Search Firm for Excellence in Customer Satisfaction

BALTIMORE – Stanton Chase, a global retained executive search firm, has been cited as the “Best Executive Search Firm in the United States for Excellence in Customer Satisfaction in 2016” by Corporate Vision Magazine.

According to Vision Magazine, “winners are selected by a combination of votes gathered from its network of respected industry partners and rigorous in-house research that canvasses an extensive network of industry insiders and corporate specialists”.¹ The awards are designed to highlight and reward the most “innovative and game-changing individuals and firms from across the global design, consulting, technology, and manufacturing industries”. Awards are given on merit alone, meaning that only the “most deserving firms, departments and individuals are cited. Each nomination is subject to a rigorous and in-depth judging process, meaning that all successful nominees can be safe in the knowledge that they are truly among the very best in their field.”

As the winner in this prestigious program, Stanton Chase was recognized as the industry leader for its commitment to customer satisfaction, a key indicator of the firm’s global reputation as a leading retained executive search firm.

“This is a distinct honor for our firm,” said Mickey Matthews, Global Chairman of Stanton Chase, which has over 70 offices in 45 countries. “We have always placed a premium on client services and
